

AN EARTH DAY CELEBRATION TO REMEMBER

Despite Saturday's chilly weather, a number of area residents came out to the town of Firestone's Earth Day event at the Firestone Sports Complex. In conjunction with the event were an Arbor Day celebration and the season opening game at the sports complex between local firefighters and town officials and staff.

Members of the Frederick-Firestone Fire Protection District softball team cheer on team members during their annual game against the town of Firestone.

Photo by CHESTNUT HOLLISTER